

Mary Kaiser is a 35-year financial services executive, specializing in marketing, lending, strategic planning and integrating the delivery of financial products and services. She joined the California Community Reinvestment Corporation (CCRC) in 1995 as President and CEO, since increasing net worth of the company by $15 million while evolving the product lines to meet the increasing needs of membership as well as the low-income communities served. CCRC has extended in excess of $750 million in new loan commitments, funded over $400 million in loans for the creation or rehabilitation of 15,500 units of affordable housing, served as a developer in the preservation of at risk Section 8 housing and raised $380 million in lines of credit from member bank institutions. Active loan sales in the secondary market exceed $250 million in multi-family affordable housing mortgages. CCRC has also launched the Workforce Housing Fund, a real estate equity fund targeting for sale housing development to the workforce. CRC is the first non-profit fund manager in this field. She has a B.A. in Psychology and a Master's degree in Business Administration.